THE COURTS.

CHARGED WITH BREACH OF TRUST. OPENING OF THE TRIAL OF LOUIS F. THERASSON. Louis F. Therasson, a lawyer, indicted for raining a signature by false pretences, was put on trial yesterday before Judge Davis in the Court of Oyer and Terminer. Mr. Therasson is an old lawyer, well own to the profession. He is defended by Lucien Bipdseve and William A. Beach, while District-Attorney s personally conducts the prosecution, and is in McKeon, counsel for the complainant. As ed yesterday by District-Attorney Phelps, the cause ed yesterday by District-Attorney Phelps, the cause the indicement against Therasson is that he induced Sursh L Zabriskie, a wealthy ledy and a client, to $15,000 to the Reformed Low Duich Church of lein. Belone the mortgage became due Therasson, staining that the loan was insecure, obtained his all a consent to exchange it for one more secure. He abhained the money due on the mortgage with inst, $15,294 15, and kept ber in ignorance of the fact the mortgage was paid off, and while paying the rest, never accounted to her for the principal.

TAX ON DEPOSITS IN SAVINGS BANKS.

Judge Shipman, of the United States Circuit Court, gave yesterday an important decision in regard to the taxing of savings banks' deposits. The plaintiff, the German Savings Bank, of New-York, in mking its return of Internal Revenue tax on June 1. educted from the average of its depoexempt hose which did not exceed $2,000, hade in the name of any one person, but in case of deposits exceeding $2,000, it deducted that sum before the taxes were estimated. The supervisor of Internal Revenue made a return in the plaintiff's case without these deductions, and when the Commissioners of Internal Revenue denied the appeal of the plaintiff to this assessment, the latter prought action against Collector Archbold, to recover the difference.

TAXATION OF SCRIP DIVIDENDS.

The directors of the Williamsburg Gaslight Company, in January, 1870, and January and July, 1871, authorized the issuing to the stockholders of cer-tificates, amounting to $1,000,000, declaring the holders' the payment of interest. The Brooklyn Board of Asses

MARTIN TAYLOR HELD FOR THE GRAND JURY. Martin Taylor, the Brooklyn contractor, bereference to ballot-boxes, has been twice before Justice alsh recently on criminal charges. First he had a quarrel with James J. O'Donnell, the proprietor of a paper, and after sharp words had passed between them, or, and after sharp words had passed between them allor struck O'Donnell in the face. For this assault was fined $10. Then O'Donnell charged him with thaining 4,000 copies of his paper on false representations, alleging, O'Donnell asserted, that County lerk Delmar had commissioned him to obtain the pars for use against Daniel O'Reilly during the recent impaign, when Mr. O'Reilly was the Republican and dependent candidate for Congress in the 1Id District, allor subsequently admitted that he had destroyed the ipers. The case was called by Justice Walsh yester, County Clerk Delmar testified that he never invoced Taylor to obtain the papers. Thylor was held swalt the action of the Grand Jury. He save hall in

CHARGED WITH ABDUCTION.

Pauline Honor, the daughter of Andrew mber 16 to attend a ball at the house of Smith, a Swede, who lives at No. 5 Beach-place. She did not return home, and her father, upon inquiry, learned that there had been no ball at Smith's house and that his daughter had not been there. Mr. Honor thought that Smith had been instrumental in taking his daughter away. Subsequently he learned that she had been at the house of Mrs. Taiford, No. 636 Hickesst. Thence the girl was traced to Mrs. Carey's house in Smith-st., and was brought back to her home. The next morning she went away again and has not since returned. About two weeks ago Mr. Honor caused the arrest of Smith and Mrs. Taiford on the charge of abducting his daughter. This hearing in the case was had before Justice Sembry esterday. Testimony was given by Mr. Honor and B. Martella, the interpreter in Justice Ferry's Court, and the examination was then adjourned until Monday. not return home, and her father, upon inquiry, learned

Rafaele Giurato was sentenced yesterday by Judge Gildersleeve, in the Court of General Sessions, to three years in State Prison, for grand larcen;

Judge Van Hoesen, in the proceeding of Michael H. Cashman to have Fernando Wood's house and stable removed from Seventy-seventh-st. and Eleventh-ave., so that there may be free access to the plaintiff's lots, has decided against Mr. Cashman. Judge Van Vorst decided yesterday, in Supreme Court, Special Term, the suit of Joseph Trow, tec, against Carrie S. Shannon, executrix of Madame ell. He finds that Trow's claim against Madame ell has no foundation, either as executor or trustee.

In the contest of the will of Mrs. Sarah Parker, in the Kings County Supreme Court, yesterday, the Rev. Dr. E. S. Porter, of the Bedford Avenue Re-formed Church, testified that he considered Mrs. Parker incompetent to make a will on account of mental disor-

Joseph E. Isaac was arrested yesterday by Detectives Field and O'Connor, and held in $500 bail. The arrest is said to be the first arrest ever made under the usury law. The complaint, made by J. Carroll, says that in August, 1874, Isaac Jent $50 at 5 per cent a month, made a loan of $75 in 1875 at the same rate, and a loan of $50 at 3 per cent a month in 1876.

John W. Mant has applied to Judge Barrett to prevent Herman Uni, receiver of the German Uptown Savings Bank, from selling bonds of Springport, Cayuga County, purchased by the bank. The petitio as a supervisor of the town, says that these bonds have been declared invalid by one court, and though there is an appeal, asks delay. Judge Barrett granted a stay until December 26.

Several persons indicted by the United States Grand Jury for sending lottery slips through the mails, were arraigned before Judge Benedict yesterday. Henry P. Jones and William P. McCall pleaded guitty. Jones was fined $100 and McCall $300. In the cases of B. A. Louter, A. O. Jackson, and John Duff. ex-Judge Dittenhoefer relaed the same points as before Commissioner Shields, and decision was reserved.

In the suit of Matthew McKeon against Henry Kearney, executor of Michael McKeon and others, Judge Van Vorst, in Supreme Court, Special Term, filed yesterday his decision. The main question ferm, flied yesterday his decision. The main question is on bequests to charities. Judge Van Vorst holds that a bequest of $5,000 to the Missionary Congression of St. Paul is good, but an additional gift of $2,500 is void, because its provisions were not fulfilled. A bequest of $5,000 to the Catholic Publication Society is void, as it was not incorporated; and another of $5,000 for the "Little Sisters of the Poor" is also declared void for in-defluiteness. To settle the other questions an accounting is ordered.
